ALLIES ADVANCE ON CHINESE CAPITAL

American and British Forces Begin Their Forward Movement Toward Pekin.

General Chaffee Has Been Delayed by Difficulties Attending Debarkation of His Horses and Men.

London, Aug. 6, 4 a. m.-The American and British forces began the advance on Pekin last Thursday, according to a dispatch dated Aug. 2 from Tien Tsin to the Daily Express. "The main body of the allies," continues the ndent, "marched July 30. General Chaffee was delayed by difficulties of disembarkation.

"General Dorward (the British commander) had no such obstacles, and his delay is inexplicable.

The other foreign troops are now half way to Lofa. The force includes 20,000 Japanese, under General Yamachuchi, and 10,000 Russians. The British force totals 9,000, and the other foreign troops are 7,000. We are weak in that the American commander is unwilling to advance until he is reinforced. the Japanese reconnaissance yesterday apparently inclined them to favor raiting for further reinforcements. The Russians and French acquiesced.

"On Aug. 1 a strong force of Chinese from the native city attacked Tien Tsin. By a series of brilliant charges our troops drove the enemy from their positions. The native city is still defiant, and the allies are unwilling to march troops through its streets, as it would mean an immense slaughter. When the Chinese saw so large a body of troops marching westward they apparently believed they would have an easy victory over those who were left."

London, Aug. 6, 4 a. m.-The Tien Tsin correspondent of the Times, wiring Inly 31, says:

"General Gaselee is anxious to advance, but his command is so small, mly 3,000, that he cannot take the lead. The date for the departure of the expedition is, therefore, uncertain."

Commenting upon this dispatch, the Times says:

It is, perhaps, inevitable, although undoubtedly disappointing, that the ance should be delayed."

It will be noticed that the dispatch to the Daily Express announcing that e troops had started is dated two days later than the dispatch to the Times, nd two days later than any other dispatch published in London this morning. There is no way of verifying statements of the Daily Express correandent. They must simply be taken for what they are worth.

Escort For Ministers.

"Mr. Goodnow adds that Director of Posts Sheng had, on the 5th, made to him an imperial edict dated July 30, the ministe says the ministers can receive mes-sages not in cipher, but, notwithstanding this, plain messages were returned ing this, plain messages were returned to some consuls on Aug. 4."

While the messages from Minister Conger and Secretary Squires bear the date of July 21, the belief, founded not only upon them, but also upon material and later information, is that the lega-tions are yet safe from immediate harm. At present there is no means of knowing whether the ministers will accept the offer of the Chinese imperia government to provide an escort for them to Tien Tsin, but it is surmised that they will prefer to remain within the British legation at Pekin until the arrival of the allied forces. Should they leave for Tien Tsin, in all probability it would be because they regarded it as the safer course to pursue.

It is thought to be not unlikely that the Chinese government may be very insistent upon the departure of the ministers in the hope that if they can be gotten to Tien Tsir, in safety storming of Pekin may be averted.

Chinese Are Suspicious.

The inhibition of cipher dispatches to the ministers, while a serious breach of diplomatic usage, is not regarded here with apprehension. The Chinese gov-ernment, it is pointed out, is suspicious of the actions and intent of the pow-ers, and probably has adopted this precaution to prevent communication to the ministers to detain military move-ments. It is evident from the adoption of this measure that the imperial gov ernment regards itself as antagonistic to, if not at war with the powers. Thus far no inhibition has been placed upon cipher disparches passing between the various governments and their consular representatives in China, outside of Pekin.

The state department has taken the dated July 30, says: ground that the dispatch from the ssians at Tien Tsin refuse to Tsung li Yamen, delivered at the de-Americans to put up tele-s on the railroad poles, and the railway, which English tary Hay sent on Aug. 1. That dispatch was sent to Consul General Goodnow, to be transmitted to Li Hung Chang. reached Kansas City at 7:20 this evening, over two hours late. Among the people who came through to Kansas City was Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Buck of Denver. Said Mr. Buck: "It was a most exciting experience.

I was awakened by a noise that appeared from the front platform. Then I heard the command: 'Don't make a move but hand out your valuables,' and oking up saw a revolver not inches from my face. I affected not to hear, conjuring up a way of secreting the money I had.

"Hand out quick!" came the second ute or so quiet reigned. The shot announced the death of William J. Fay. His daring had cost him his life.

"When the men ordered him to throw up his hands, he showed fight. He opened his valise and secured a revolver, but before he could raise it, the taller of the two bandits fired a shot from his revolver. It killed Fay, and in the excitement caused by the tragedy the men rushed from the car and jumped from the train. Later the passengers figured up their losses and the total in money did not amount to $20."

Description of Robbers. Mr. Buck got a good look at the men.

"One was over six feet tall, and the other was about five feet six inches in height. Both wore masks and acted like old hands at the business. The fire but hands at the business. It taller man had a mackintosh when I firstssaw him; he left it behind when he jumped from the train. A luncheon was found wrapped in its folds."

Ida B. Martin, a music teacher, and Cora B. Kelcey, a stenographer, both of Kansas City, also had an exciting experience. They occupied a lower berth, and were awakened by the noisy entrance of the bandits. The porter had been reduced to a state of subjection by having a revolver placed to his head, and while one robber gua him, the other made the rounds of the berths. Said Miss Kelcey.

"The curtains were swept aside, a revolver poked into my face and a command 'Give me your money,' was made.

"I have no money,' I replied.

"Yes you have,' he retorted, with a menacing gesture. "When I repeated that I had nothing, he got mad and demanded fiercely:

Give me your pocketbook."
"I handed it over and after he had taken the 50 cents it contained, he threw it back with to me with an oath." From Miss Martin the robber secured two finger rings. She protested that she had nothing, and he demanded the rings, got them, said "Thank you," and made his way to the next berth."
